

GIVING BACK

OCTOBER 2, 2008

WOMEN'S RIGHTS INFORMATION CENTER

The Women's Rights Information Center (WUIC), an Englewood-based organization established to help women in a changing society, held its 35th anniversary luncheon at the Clinton Inn in Tenafly. The keynote address was delivered by Malaak Compton-Rock, local humanitarian, founder of the Angelrock Project; the event honored Phoebe Seham, founder and president of WUIC.

Robin Sodoti, Gerrette Allegra, Kelly Spitzley, Francine Ma, Myrtha Span and Lisa Angelette

Assemblywoman Valerie Vaineri Huttie with Bermari Roig-Eichler

Malaak Compton-Rock, local humanitarian, founder and director, The Angelrock Project

Phoebe Seham, president, board of trustees and honoree, WRIC, with Cynthia Cappell, member, board of trustees, Women's Rights Information Center

Joan Grzenda, executive director, WRIC; MaryBeth Garcia; Liz Corsini; Monica Borg; Kelly Sacks; Annie Hausmann; Susan Del Rio and Kim Jack Riley, all members of the WE CARE fund-raising advisory committee