

SEPTEMBER 19, 2008

ALONZO MOURNING CHARITIES AND FOUNDATION FOR AUTISM TRAINING AND EDUCATION

John and Lenora Klein opened their Alpine home to host a special benefit party for Alonzo Mourning Charities and the Foundation for Autism Training and Education (FATE). The event was co-hosted by Sheilagh Cirillo, executive director of FATE, and her husband, Anthony Cirillo.

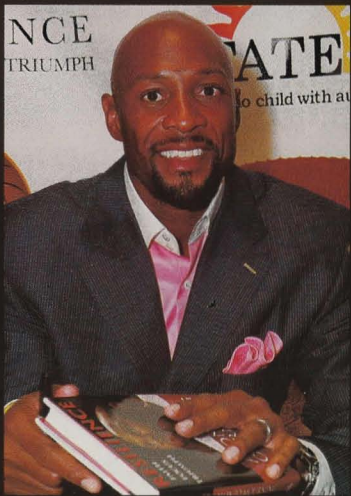

Sheilagh Cirillo, executive director, FATE, with her husband, Anthony Cirillo

Merry Duchak and Doug Duchak, president and CEO, Englewood Hospital and Medical Center

Beth Nadel and Jay Nadel, chairman, board of trustees, Englewood Hospital and Medical Center

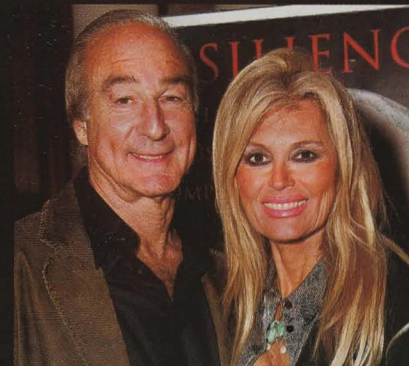

Alonzo Mourning

Hosts John and Lenora Klein

Lori Stokes, anchorwoman, WABC-TV's Eyewitness News, with Malaak Compton-Rock

Richard Kurtz, chairman, Englewood Hospital and Medical Center Foundation, with his wife, Patti Kurtz

Former Knicks great Patrick Ewing with Cliff Witmayer, owner, Cliffhanger Productions